FULLERTON.

Mrs. Catherine Leitner, daughter of Daniel and Mary B. Leitner, of Baltimore, aged 29 years, died after a short illness. Mrs. Leitner was a resident of this section. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery on Monday morning.

Mr. Andrew Krest, a popular young farmer near Putty Hill avenue, was overcome by the heat during the early part of last week while working in the field. He was rushed to the hospital. Spinal meningitis developed and he died last Friday night. He leaves a widow and two small children. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from St. Joseph's Church at 9 o'clock with a requiem mass for the repose of his soul. Much sympathy is expressed on his sudden demise and for his family.

Mr. George Seifert, while forking up straw accidentally drove the pitchfork through his foot and left a very painful wound.

Farmers are up to the neck in work trying to market the cherries, strawberries, peas, beans, etc., on account of the shortage of labor. They are doing well. Very few expect any holiday on account of the rush.

The heavy rains on Friday left a trail of work in its wake in the shape of huge waterfalls, lightning and thunder was terrific.

Fruit of all kinds promises to be a bumper this season.

RASPEBURG.

The Adult Bible Class of Gatch M. E. Church spent a day at Miller's Park, in celebration of the Fourth.

The Community Bible Class of Overlea, spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Umlauf, at Betterton. A large crowd went by boat, and were greeted at the pier in Betterton by Mr. and Mrs. Umlauf, who were former members of the Class and at one time lived in Overlea. A fine day and a lovely trip was enjoyed by all.

Garden Rebekah Lodge held its installation on Tuesday night and there was a large gathering to witness it. Mrs. Louise Schuler, of Overlea, was made Noble Grand, and Mrs. Jennie Williams, of Raspeburg, Vice-Grand. Mrs. Mary B. Scheckel, of Baltimore, assisted by Mrs. Mollie McCormick and Mrs. Hattie Pumphrey and Mrs. Anna Grace, had charge of the installation. The children in the community of Kenwood held a lawn fete on Monday afternoon for the benefit of the Fresh Air fund, and a good little sum was realized. The fete was held on the grounds of Mr. George Ode, the Kenwood storekeeper.

All Towson Shares Our Success

Not only does our plant afford pleasant and healthful employment for hundreds of Towsonites, but everyone in Towson is benefited by the additional money that is brought to Towson.

This money comes from all over the United States, and from many foreign countries as well. A considerable portion of it is spent in Towson, contributing largely to the general prosperity.

This is money which is brought into Towson from outside, not merely the circulation of money that is already here.
